The New Force Bill Introduced by Senato Quay-The Silver Pool-Representative Stone's Speech.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 12 .- The ate Committee on Appropriations have ced to the amendment placed on the ion appropriation bill by Mr. Dockery, Missouri, reducing the fees in wated cases from $10 to $2, and also added an item to the culling the fees under the ability act to $5 or a reduction ne half. This is a terrible whack "pension sharks" here in Washing-nt under the first item it will save i soldiers a million dollars a year ley now pay to the claim agents. WENT FOR THE PORCE BILL.

Stone, of Missouri, to-day made a cech in the House, estensibly on the spiropriation bill, but he switched d hit the force bill some terrible. He struck from the shoulder, too, id his respects to "Hartford Conventodge, the author of the infamous it. Stone brought out the point that ten been made in this correspondat George Cabot, one of Lodge's ors, was an archiralitor in the Hartmentent, but his grandparents went theky from Culpeper county, Value will not be in the next House, declined a renomination last summongh he was assured he could get mination. pared to-day and was distributed among the 107 Farmers' Alliance men in the Legislature. They will study the bill carefully, and later will hold a caucus on it. It is now certain that there will be a commission. The official organ of the Alliance in North Carolina will say editorially to-morrow that the Alliance men will be held responsible for the character of the legislation of this session by friends and foes alike, and no class will condemn it more loudly than the politicians if there is failure to create a commission. The most frightful pressure which can be employed will be brought to bear, as it was two years ago, to defeat the measure, but if the members yield to this they must take all the consequences.

ZEB. VANCE RENOMINATED.

Rising Vote without Opposition.
(Special telegram to the Dispatch, I RALEIGH, N. C., January 12.—At 8:30 o'clock to-night there was a Democratic caucus in the hall of the House, Senator Turner presiding, the object of which was the nomination of a candidate for United States senator. Senator Pickett, of Anson, nominated Zebulon B. Vance, who, he asserted, was the greatest southern senator and the peer of any man in the country.
He eulogized Vance's public life and his unswerving devotion to the people of North Carolina.

The nomination was seconded by Senator Ardrey, of Mecklenburg, the county which was for many years Vance's home. He said that all differences had been settled and the party was united upon Vance, who had made all concessions. Senator Butler, of Sampson, seconded the nomination and eulogized Vance as North Carolina's most illustrious son, who had always borne the people's banners to victory. Mr. Dixon, of Cleveland, also made a speech seconding the nomination, and moved that it be made by acclamation.

Mr. Cole, of Haywood, in seconding the nomination said he did so as a representative of the people of the mountain section of the State, and Senator Grigsbee, of Ashe, spoke in behalf of the people of the northwestern counties, and Mr. Lowry for the people of Buncome, Vance's native county. King of Guilford, Gilman of Onslow, Bryan of Wayne, Senator Galloway, of Greene, Murdock of Alexander, Wilcox of Moore, Dixon of Cleveland, Coats of Rockingham, Sutton of Cumberland, Watson of Robeson, who said the Alliance of North Carolina is a unit for Vance; Allen of Granville, Alston of Franklin all made speeches. OTHER SECONDING SPEECHES.

ston of Franklin all made speeches.

NOMINATED.

By a rising vote Vance was then nominated. There was great cheering at the announcement of the result, in which all the members and the great crowd of spectators joined. Vance was called for and was escorted to the hall by a committee composed of Messrs. Pickett of Anson, Long of Columbus, and Ardrey of Mecklenburg.

OUTBURST OF CREERS. OUTPURST OF CHERS.

There was an outburst of cheers as the gray-haired Senator entered, and yet another when he arose to speak. He said that thirty-six years ago he stood in this very hall, the representative of Buncombe county. He was here now to return thanks for his nomination for the fourth time to be United States senator.

United States senator.

A PATTHFUL RECORD.

He had always represented his people honestly and faithfully, and was proud to be able to say that they had never had occasion to blush for his actions. He then reviewed financial legislation, which up to this time had been altogether in favor of the rich and the monopolists and trusts, and attacked the tariff laws as openly avowed to be for the suppression of commerce among the nations.

THE FARMESS.

THE FARMERS.

The burden of all these things falls heaviest upon the agricultural classes, and the great cotton crop this season alone preventing a great financial panic in the His speech was of an hour's length and was very able.

Chicago, Lil., January 12.—Dispatches from the southern portion of Illinois state that a regular blizzard prevailed all day vesterday in that part of the State. Anna, Ill. reports the heaviest snow-storm for three years, the snow being over eight inches deep. Duquesne also reports a depth of eight inches. As it has been very dry for some time in that section of the State, the snow will be of very great benefit and especially to the wheat crop, which now promises to be good. A Beneficial Blizzard.

APPLICANTS AND CANDIDATES Numerous Than the Members of th West Virginia Legislature.

West Virginia Legislature.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

CRANLESTON, W. Va., January 12.—The Legislature will convene here Wednesday at noon and already the members are dropping in rapidly, but are not nearly so numerous as candidates for every office within the gift of the Legislature. For President of the Senate there are three applicants; for Clerk of the Senate six; for Sergeant-at-Arms, three; for doorkeeper, three. For Speaker of the House there are five applicants; tor Clerk, two, while for Sergeant-at-Arms and Door-Keeper of the House there are several candidates. The cancuses will be held to-morrow night, and until then, or for the present, at least, it cannot be told who has the best chances for the nominations. The Democratic majority in the House is 23 and in the Senate 8.
